Locally Sourced, Hand-Crafted Wares Return to the Arts Council for Holiday Marketplace!

Lake Oswego, Oregon – Holiday Marketplace returns this November and December - making it convenient for the community to shop for those hard-to-find gifts in a safe and comfortable shopping environment - while supporting local makers and artists. The exhibition runs from November 16 through December 24 at the ARTspace Gallery located at 380 A Avenue, Suite A, Lake Oswego.

In its fifth year, the hand-selected, all-media Holiday Marketplace will showcase work including fine art, wood, ceramics, jewelry, handmade gifts, ornaments, cards, textiles, accessories, soaps and candles, along with hand-crafted confections, and much more!

This curated collection of work includes Ha Austin - ceramics, Madsass Soap – homemade soaps, bath salts, and lotions, Reclaimed Wool – ornaments and home goods, Sora Shodo – fine art, along with beloved pieces from Emily Miller – ceramics, cards, and watercolor, Tiger Food Press – home goods, prints, and cards, LeBrie Rich – felt ornaments, cards, and kits, Stubborn Stiles – jewelry and iconic ornaments, wood crafters like Gary Blumanthal and Dennis Curtis, Rosey Covert with her basketry art, and the Candy RX – scrumptious candy confections, just to name a few. For a full listing of artists, see the Arts Council website at www.artscouncillo.org.

Holiday Marketplace is the only dedicated, non-profit visual arts space in Lake Oswego. Purchases directly benefit the artists and community-enriching programming of the Arts Council.

ARTspace Gallery is taking all the safety precautions for a safe visit including mask requirements and capacity limits.

This year, Holiday Marketplace will feature an online Marketplace which will be available starting the week of November 16. The link will be available on the Arts Council website. Updates, in-person and online events, and more are also available on the Arts Council website at www.artscouncillo.org.

Arts Council of Lake Oswego's ARTspace Gallery is located at 380 A Avenue, Suite A, Lake Oswego, OR 97034. For more information visit www.artscouncillo.org or call 503.675.3738. Holiday Marketplace hours are Tuesday through Friday from 10 to 5:00 p.m., and Saturday from 10 to 2 p.m.
